The 5Ws Description

5Ws is an acronym that stands for "Who, What, Where, When, Why"; some authors add a sixth question, "How", to the list. The 5Ws is an analysis method, composed of several stages that question the fundamental characteristics of a situation.

They are often mentioned in journalism, research and police investigations. According to the principle of the Five Ws, a report can only be considered complete if it answers these questions starting with an interrogative word.
