

Microeconomics for students of the "Roshanak" Project

Teacher: Noemi Pace (npace@unite.it)

CFU: 12

Expected learning outcomes

- To develop a general overview of the major topics in Microeconomics;
- To know the functioning of different market structures (perfect competition, monopoly, oligopoly)

Pre-requirements

Some basic knowledge of graphical representations and secondary-school level Mathematics.

Contents

- trade offs in economics
- consumer theory
- elasticity and markets
- the effect of taxes
- production theory
- equilibrium under perfect competition and welfare
- monopoly
- oligopoly

Referral texts

Economics, by Paul Krugman and Robin Wells, McMillan publisher, third edition

Assessment methods

- Oral examination (100% of final mark)