

Exercise on verbal paradigms

Verbal paradigms – Here follow some examples of irregular verbs, most of them are quite common in scientific English.

Complete the table below giving 1 every possible alternative for past simple and/or past participle, 2 the Italian equivalent(s) of the infinitive form only and 3 highlighting the difference of the transitive vs intransitive usage in meaning (when it exists!):

INFINITIVE	PAST SIMPLE	PAST PARTICIPLE	-ING FORM	ITALIAN TRANSLATION (of the infinitive form only!)
1.		been
2. to bear
3. to bend
4.		become
5.	began
6. to burn
7.		bred
8.	broke
9. to bring
10.	caught
11.		cut
12. to deal
13.	drew
14. to eat

15.		fallen
16. to feed
17.	felt
18.		fought
19. to flee
20.	got
21. to grow
22.		heard
23. to hide
24.		held
25. to keep
26.	knew
27. to lay
28. to lead
29. to learn
30. to lie
31.	lost
32. to make
33. to mow
34.	proved

35.		run
36. to seek
37.	shook
38. to sink
39. to sleep
40. to sneak
41. to spread
42. to sow
43.	swelled
44. to swim
45.		told
46.	thought
47.		thrown
48. to un/wind
49. to wound
50.	wrote

* Please refer to <https://www.oxfordlearnersdictionaries.com/>